Malaga Tour

Malaga is located in the extreme west of the Mediterranean Sea and in the south of the Iberian Peninsula, about 100 km east of the Strait of Gibraltar. Its municipal area extends over the Montes de Málaga and the Guadalhorce Valley. Founded by the Phoenicians in the VIII century a. C., which makes it one of the oldest cities in Europe, Malaga was a municipality first federated and then Roman law of the Roman Empire, and a thriving Andalusian medina four times capital of its own kingdom, which was incorporated into the Crown of Castile in 1487. During the nineteenth century the city experienced a remarkable industrial and revolutionary activity that placed it as the first industrial city of Spain. Learn from the hand of our expert guide every corner of this wonderful city, the Alameda, the Gibralfaro castle, the Cathedral of Malaga, stroll through the Jewish quarter, the Thyssen environment and of course, a visit to the Picasso Museum, to meet the Malaga most popular in the world. In addition we will visit typical places of Malaga so that you can enjoy its gastronomy and its people.
